the committed vehicle: N° of the licence

- state to take part in the “Paradise Porsche 2010” with one convey of mark Porsche ensured and in conformity with the regulation in force:

I state to take part in the demonstration which will take place of October 8, 2010, under my whole responsibility and with my risks and dangers.

I thus commit myself giving up irrevocably all recourse, some title that it is, against the organizers and the leaders of Porsche Club the Mediterranean.

I am conscious that the present renunciation of recourse will automatically be essential on my having right, given that that my insurance company will not be able to make use of his right of recourse against the organizers and to the leaders to Porsche Club the Mediterranean, to which title that it is.

I recognize being the only person in charge for my control and my vehicle. I commit myself respecting the Highway code in force on the French territory and the interior regulation on the sites of reception.

The passengers, who would take seat in my vehicle, do it with their risks and dangers and under my own responsibility.

I recognize being responsible for the possible damage that I will cause with my vehicle and I commit myself refunding the expenses with the appropriate authority.

The priority is given to the safety of the crews and the vehicles.

I authorize the organizers to be published freely, as they wish it, the photographs and the films which will be carried out during the demonstration. Those will be, in fact, free of right.

For the good of each one, rules of good control will be installation. The organizers and the leaders of Porsche Club the Mediterranean reserve the right to exclude in a final way a volunteer and/or a crew whose behavior would be excessive or who would disturb the demonstration. The people concerned will be able to claim with no refunding of the expenses of inscription, even partially.

For the options in the event of quota reached, you will be informed and refunded by return of mail.

In the event of cancellation from the “XVII^{ème} PARADISES PORSCHE”, the participants will be completely refunded.
